FOREIGNERS WANT WHEAT. AND DEMAND IS URGENT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHICAGO. March M.-Forsigners want wheat, and they want it in the near future and the demand may be called urgent. From the point of view of the foreigners, the matter of peace is a long distance away. Not only Great Britain, but the other countries making up the ailles are in the Cultigners making up the ailles are in the Cultigners making the new winters, and the purchases taking the new winters, and the purchases to-day were extimated at around (80,00) bushels. The day's business was of good proportions when the Manitobas and other descriptions in various positions are considered. It was said after the close to-day that not only were importing countries in the Chicago market for August wheat, but that they were making good bids for September, as well as for later fall and winter loading. Resides their own citizens and soldiers who must be fed, some of the countries have thousands of prisoners that must be looked after and fed. Russia is about the looked after and fed. Russia is about the only warring nation that has ample supplies of foodkuffs, and the fact that they are not suffering is because the Dardanelles are shut off from commercial shipping and their big surplus of wheat and barley remains in that country, where it is now said to be held at a much lower price than the Size Decks of Largain and Sale, which was against ble Bottos and the alleged gamblers will be heard.
